

JUNIOR BRIDGE TEACH-IN

Loughborough University, 28th - 30th August 2015

Want to learn a fun, mentally challenging game? Want a great way to meet like-minded people?

Come to the Junior Teach-In and learn to play bridge, one of the world's greatest games. It is easy to learn, but difficult to master, and whatever standard you play at it can be fantastic entertainment.

Everyone under 21 is welcome regardless of ability or previous experience.

Everyone can learn to play - younger players can learn the basics of the game; older teenagers can join an accelerated course and go from 'novice to player' in a weekend.

Experience of other card games is not essential. No matter what your background, this game is enjoyable for all.

Whether you are a complete beginner, have played a little before, or are a regular player, everyone can enjoy a fun packed weekend at the Junior Teach-In.

There is lots of bridge tuition, coaching and competitions, for all standards, alongside social activities and other sports.

Participants can take part in the EBED Junior Awards Scheme and earn Certificates of Achievement during the weekend as they progress through the levels.

Join us and take the first steps in learning a game you can love for a lifetime, whether playing casually, online, or in local or national competitions.

The Junior Teach-In is held on the leafy Loughborough University campus.

Participants will stay in single, en suite rooms in one of the university's newest halls of residence.

All meals are included in the entry fee.

Local youngsters may attend at a reduced 'non-residential' rate.

Whilst the emphasis is on playing bridge, there is plenty of time in the schedule for socialising and other sporting activities, including the annual rounders match.

Accompanying adults are welcome, and there is a dedicated bridge programme for those 'non-youngsters' wishing to play.

The cost is £160 per student (£175 for adults), inclusive of all meals, two nights' en-suite accommodation, and all the bridge fun.

'Non residential' participants (both youngsters and adults) are welcome at a rate of £45 per person.
